   (a) administer the town in respect of which it is set up;
   (b) consist of such number of councillors as is specified in the Second Schedule.
(2) All municipal councillors shall be elected in accordance with the Representation of the People Act.
(3) The corporate name of a municipal council shall be formed by adding to the words “The Municipal Council”, the name of the town concerned.

5 The district council
(1) A district council shall –
   (a) administer the district in respect of which it is set up;
   (b) consist of such number of councillors as is specified in the Second Schedule.
(2) All district councillors shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of section 17.
(3) The corporate name of a District Council shall consist of the name of the district between the word “the” and the words “District Council”.

[Amended 30/92]

6 The village council
(1) A village council shall –
   (a) administer the villages in respect of which it is set up;
   (b) consist of 12 councillors.
(2) The village councillors shall be elected in accordance with the Representation of the People Act.
(3) Where the number of elected village councillors falls below 12 the Minister may nominate such number of persons to be councillors as will bring the number to 12.
(4) The corporate name of a village council shall consist of the name of the village between the word “the” and the words “Village Council”.

7 Division of towns into electoral wards
(1) The President may, by order and on receipt of proposals from any urban authority or upon the recommendation of the Minister, provide for –
   (a) the division of a town into a specified number of electoral wards; and
(b) fixing the number of councillors for each ward.

(2) The boundaries of every electoral ward shall be determined by the President after an inquiry to be held in such manner as he may decide.

(3) The Minister shall cause a notice of inquiry to be published in the Gazette.

(4) Following an inquiry, the President shall cause a draft Order to be prepared setting out the proposed boundaries of an electoral ward.

(5) The draft Order specified in subsection (4) shall –
   (a) be published by the Minister in 2 or more daily newspapers;
   (b) be open to inspection at such place as may be specified.

(6) Every person who wishes to make any representations on the boundaries proposed in the draft Order may do so within 6 weeks, in such manner and at such place as may be specified.

(7) The President shall, by Order, after the period specified in subsection (6) and after considering any representations made, confirm the boundaries proposed in the draft Order or fix them with such modifications as he may determine.

[Amended 48/91]

8 Election of municipal councillors

(1) Subject to the Representation of the People Act, an election of municipal councillors shall be held in October 1991 and thereafter in the same month every five years on such date as shall be fixed by the President.

(2) Where a town has been divided into electoral wards, a separate election shall be held in respect of each ward.

(3) There shall be returned in respect of each town or electoral ward, the number of councillors specified in the Second Schedule or in the Order of the President made under section 7, as the case may be.

[Amended 48/91]

9 Term of office of municipal councillors

Subject to the provisions of this Act –
   (a) the term of office of elected municipal councillors shall begin on the day following the day on which such councillors are returned;
   (b) the term of office of councillors appointed under section (38) shall begin on the date of their appointment; and
   (c) the term of office of councillors shall terminate on the day immediately preceding nomination day at a general election for the election of councillors.

10 Oath to be taken by municipal councillors

(1) Subject to subsection (2), every elected municipal councillor shall before taking his seat at the municipal council, take and subscribe the oath specified in the Third Schedule.

(2) The oath shall be taken and subscribed at a public sitting of the municipal council to be held in the Council Chamber.

(3) The councillors who are present at the public sitting specified in subsection (2) shall take the oath in alphabetical order of their surnames.

(4) The seat of a councillor shall become vacant –
   (a) upon his refusal to take and subscribe the oath specified in subsection (1); or
   (b) at the expiry of 4 weeks of his election if he fails to take the oath within that time.

(5) Every councillor who wilfully refuses to take and subscribe the oath required to be taken or fails to do so within 4 weeks of his election, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to pay a fine which shall not be less than Rs 1,000 nor more than Rs 5,000.

11 First sitting of municipal councillors

(1) The Chief Executive shall, immediately after the general municipal election, convene a meeting of the councillors who have been returned.

(2) The first meeting of the councillors shall take place between the third day and the seventh day of their election.

(3) The meeting shall be presided by the senior councillor.

(4) The councillors who are present at the meeting shall appoint, by election, two councillors to be mayor and deputy mayor respectively.
(5) Where there is an equality of votes, a selection for appointment shall be made by drawing of lots.

(6) Where no appointment is made within the time specified in subsection (2), the President may make the appointment in such manner as he deems fit.

(7) The mayor and deputy mayor shall, within the five days following immediately upon their appointment, take the oath of allegiance and the official oath specified in the Oaths Act.

(8) The retiring mayor and deputy mayor shall continue in office until their successors have taken the necessary oaths.

(9) (a) For the purpose of this section, the senior councillor shall be –

(i) subject to the other provisions of this subsection, the councillor present who has obtained the highest percentage of votes at the last election of municipal councillors;

(ii) where more than one among the councillors present have obtained the highest percentage of votes at the election, the one among such councillors whose name is drawn by lot at the meeting by the town clerk;

(iii) where there has been no poll at such election in respect of the urban authority concerned, or in case there is among the councillors present no elected councillor, the councillor whose name is drawn by lot at the meeting by the town clerk;

(iv) where there has been no poll in one or more of the wards of the town concerned at such election, the one among the councillor or councillors present having obtained the highest percentage of votes of such election and the councillors present returned in respect of the other ward or wards whose name is drawn by lot at the meeting by the town clerk.

(b) For the purposes of this subsection, the percentage of votes obtained by a councillor at a municipal election shall be the figure obtained in dividing the number of votes secured by that councillor at the election by the total number of valid votes cast in the ward in which he stood for election.

[Amended 48/91; 30/92]

12 Election of Mayor and Deputy Mayor

(1) Between 21 and 24 November in any year other than a year in which the general election is held, every urban authority, at a special meeting held for that purpose and convened by the Chief Executive, shall appoint by election, 2 councillors to be mayor and deputy mayor respectively.

(2) The meeting shall be presided by the retiring mayor or, in his absence, the deputy mayor, or in the absence of both of them, a councillor elected as chairman of the day by the councillors present at the meeting.

(3) Where there is equality of votes, a selection for appointment shall be made by drawing of lots.

(4) Where no appointment is made within the time specified in subsection (1), the President may make the appointments in such manner as he deems fit.

(5) The mayor and deputy mayor shall, within the five days following immediately after the date of their appointment, take the oath of allegiance and the official oath specified in the Oaths Act.

(6) The retiring mayor and deputy mayor shall continue in office until their successors have taken the necessary oaths.

[Amended 48/91; 30/92]

13 Powers of the deputy mayor and the substitute mayor

(1) Any act required by this Act to be done by the mayor may, in his absence, be done by the deputy mayor.

(2) Where both the mayor and the deputy mayor are absent, the municipal council shall, at a meeting held under the chairmanship of a councillor selected by the drawing of lots, appoint a substitute mayor who shall after taking the oath specified in section 11 (7), act as mayor.

14 Remuneration of mayors
The mayor of a municipal council shall be paid such monthly remuneration as may be prescribed.

15 District Councils

There shall be for every district a council to be called a district council which shall consist of councillors elected in accordance with section 17.

[Amended 30/92]

16 [Repealed 30/92]

17 Election of district councillors

(1) In 2006 and, thereafter in every succeeding fifth year between the 10th and 15th day following the return of candidates at village council elections, district councillors shall be elected by secret ballot from among the members of village councils.

(2) Each village council shall be represented on its respective District Council by one representative elected from among its councillors.

(3) The Secretary of every District Council shall convene a meeting of all the councillors of a Village Council for the purpose of electing one representative of a village council to the District Council.

(4) The election shall be held at such place as may be appointed by the Permanent Secretary.

(5) The Permanent Secretary or his representative shall preside over the meeting of the village councillors so convened, but he shall have no right to vote.

(6) Where there is an equality of votes between members at an election, the election as between those members who have obtained equal numbers of votes shall be decided by the drawing of lots by the Permanent Secretary or his representative.

[Note]

18 Election of chairman of district councils

(1) The Secretary of every District Council shall, in the year of village council elections, convene a special meeting within one week of elections held under section 17 for the purpose of electing a chairman and a vice chairman to replace the chairman and the vice chairman last appointed.

(2) (a) In any other year the election of the chairman and vice chairman shall be held between the 1 and 7 July.

   (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), in 2004, the election of the chairman and vice-chairman shall be held between 1 and 7 September.

(3) (a) The meeting under subsections (1) and (12) shall be presided by the retiring chairman or vice chairman or in the absence of both of them by a councillor elected as chairman of the day by the councillors present at the meeting.

   (b) Where a retiring chairman or retiring vice chairman has not been elected as councillor he shall have no right to vote.

   (c) Where a district council fails or refuses to appoint a chairman or a vice chairman, the Secretary shall so inform the Minister who may make such appointment.

(4) In the event of an equality of votes between members who secure the greatest number of votes for appointment to the office of chairman or vice-chairman, one of them shall be elected by drawing of lots.

(5) The chairman and vice-chairman previously appointed shall continue in office until the election of a new chairman and a new vice-chairman, as the case may be, and shall be eligible for re-election.

[Note]

19 Remuneration of chairman of district councils

The chairman of every district council shall be paid such monthly remuneration as may be prescribed.

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this section and section 33, a member of a district council shall, as from 1992 hold office for a term of 5 years and be eligible for re-election.

(2) The seat of a member of a district council shall be deemed to be vacant where he elects to stop serving as village councillor or is so disqualified.
(3) (a) Notwithstanding subsection (3), in any year in which village council elections are held, village councillors who have been elected as district councillors shall continue to hold the office of district councillor until the day preceding the day on which village council elections are to be held.
   (b) The chairman and vice chairman, of a district council however, shall continue in office until the election of a new chairman and a new vice chairman.

(4) Where a Proclamation is made under section 152 directing that the provisions of this Act relating to district councils shall apply to any district, the meetings, appointment and elections mentioned in section 17 shall take place within one month of the publication of the Proclamation in the Gazette.

(5) (a) Notwithstanding subsection (1) and (7), a village council may, after its representative has served for a period of one year at the District Council, replace him by another councillor by way of a motion in the village council.
   (b) After the passing of such a motion, an election to fill the vacancy so occurring shall be held within fifteen days of the occurrence of the vacancy and shall be conducted in the same manner as spelt out in section 17.
   (c) Paragraph (a) shall not apply where the representative is the chairman or vice-chairman of a district council.

(6) The term of office of elected members of district councils shall begin on the day following the date on which such members are returned.

(7) All members of district councils currently in office shall continue to serve as such until the day preceding the day on which village council elections are to be held in 2006.

[Note]

21 Revocation of chairman of district council

(1) Where the chairman of a district council no longer commands a majority or where a vote of no confidence has been passed against him, the Minister shall revoke the chairman and order that a new chairman be elected in accordance with section 18.

(2) Only two motions of no confidence shall be allowed during the tenure of office of a chairman, there being an interval of not less than six months between the two motions.

[Amended 30/92]

22 Village councils

(1) There shall be established in every village a village council which shall consist of 12 members elected in accordance with the Representation of the People Act.

(2) Where less than 12 persons are candidates at a village council election, the Minister shall nominate the number of persons required to bring the number of members to 12.

23 Village councillors

(1) Subject to subsection (3), in 2006 and in every succeeding fifth year thereafter –
   (a) the term of office of members of all village councils shall terminate on the date immediately preceding nomination day at a general election for the election of members of village councils;
   (b) the election and nomination of persons who are to serve as members of village councils shall take place before 1 December on a day to be fixed by the President and before 10 December respectively;
   (c) (i) the term of office of members of village councils so elected shall begin on the day following the day on which the members are returned;
      (ii) the term of office of members of village councils so nominated shall begin on the day of their nomination.

(2) Subject to this section and section 34, members of a village council shall, as from 1992, hold office for 5 years, and shall be eligible for re-election.

(3) (a) Where a Proclamation is made under section 152 directing that the provisions of this Act relating to village councils shall apply to any area, the election and nomination of persons who are to serve as members of the village council for that area shall take place within 3 months of the date of publication of the Proclamation in the Gazette.
   (b) The persons so elected or nominated shall hold office from the date of their election or nomination until the day immediately preceding nomination day at the next general election to be held for the election of members of village councils under subsection (1).
(4) All members of village councils currently in office shall continue to serve as such until the day immediately preceding nomination day at a general election for the election of members of village councils in 2006.

[Amended 48/91] [Note]

24 The chairman of village councils

(1) (a) The chief executive of a district council shall within one week after the return of candidates in the year of village council elections, convene a special meeting of the members of each village council within the district council for the purpose of electing by secret ballot 2 members to be chairman and vice chairman of the Council respectively.

(b) In any other year the meeting for the election of the chairman and vice chairman shall be held between the 1 and 7 July.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b), in 2004, the meeting for the election of the chairman and vice-chairman shall be held between 1 and 7 September.

(2) (a) The meeting specified in subsection (1) shall be presided by the retiring chairman or vice chairman or in the absence of both of them by a councillor elected as chairman of the day by the councillors present.

(b) Where in the year of village council elections the retiring chairman or vice chairman is not an elected councillor he shall have no right to vote.

(3) Where there is an equality of votes between members who secure the greatest number of votes for appointment to the office of chairman or vice chairman, one of them shall be elected by the drawing of lots.

(4) The chairman and vice-chairman previously appointed shall continue in office until the election of a new chairman, and a vice-chairman and shall be eligible for re-election.

(5) Where the chairman or the vice-chairman ceases to be resident within the village where he was elected, he shall be deemed to have vacated his office as such from that time.

(6) Where any dispute arises as to whether a chairman or a vice-chairman is resident within the village where he was elected, the matter shall be referred to the Permanent Secretary whose decision shall be final.

(7) The chairman of every village council shall be paid such monthly remuneration as may be prescribed.

[Note]

25 Suspension of village councils

(1) The Minister may, with the consent of the district council of the area and where he thinks it advisable –

(c) where, without the approval of the President, he or any firm of which he is a member or any company of which he is a director or manager becomes a party to any contract with the council of which he is a member, or where without such approval he becomes a member of a firm, or a director or manager of a company which is a party to any such subsisting contract; or
(d) where he is disqualified under section 30 (2).

Amended 48/91; 30/92

35 Declaration of vacancy in office

(1) Where a member of a local authority –
(a) ceases to be qualified to be a member of the authority;
(b) becomes disqualified from being a member of the authority for any reason other than by reason of conviction or a breach of any enactment relating to electoral offences; or
(c) ceases to be a member of the authority for any of the reasons specified in section 34 (b), (c) and (d), the local authority shall, except in any case in which a declaration has been made by the Supreme Court under this Part, forthwith declare his office to be vacant and signify the vacancy by notice signed by the Chief Executive of the authority and affixed to the offices of the authority.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the local authority under this section may appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision and the appeal shall be proceeded with, heard and determined as an ordinary civil appeal.

36 Date of casual vacancies

For the purpose of filling a casual vacancy in any office for which an appointment is made or an election is held under this Act, the date on which the vacancy shall be deemed to have occurred shall be –
(a) in the case of resignation, upon the receipt of resignation by the person to whom the notice is required to be delivered;
(b) in the case of death, upon the date of death;
(c) in the case of disqualification by reason of a conviction, upon the expiration of the ordinary period allowed for making an appeal or application with respect to conviction or, where an appeal or application is finally disposed of or abandoned or fails by reason of non-prosecution;
(d) in the case of an election being declared void on election petition, upon the date of the judgment of the court;
(e) in the case of a person ceasing to be qualified to be a member of a local authority, or becoming disqualified for any reason other than that specified in paragraph (c) or ceasing to be a member of a local authority for any of the reasons specified in section 34 (b), (c) and (d), upon the date on which his office is declared to have been vacated either by the court or by the local authority, as the case may be.

36 A Casual vacancies among mayors and chairman

On a casual vacancy occurring in the office of mayor or deputy mayor of a municipal council, or of the chairman or vice chairman of a district council or a village council an election to fill the vacancy shall be held within 15 days of the occurrence of such vacancy and shall be conducted in the manner provided in section 12 or 18.

[Added 30/92]

37 Casual vacancies among councillors

(1) Where a casual vacancy occurs in the office of an elected member of an urban authority, the chief executive of the authority shall, not later than 3 days after the occurrence of the vacancy, give written notice of the vacancy to the Minister.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) and section (38), the vacancy shall be filled by election –
(a) where the number of vacancies is less than 3 and the Minister is of the opinion that it is in the public interest to hold an election; or
(b) where the number of vacancies is not less than 3, unless the Minister, after consultation with the Lord Mayor or Mayor, as the case may be, considers that the vacancies will not upset the relativity between the number of councillors in the majority group and in the opposition respectively.
(3) No election under subsection (2) shall be held within 6 months of a National Assembly election unless the Minister thinks it is in the public interest to do so.

(4) An election to fill any vacancy under paragraph 2 (a) shall be –
   (a) held on such day as may be fixed by the President by notice published in the Gazette, being not more than 40 days after the date of such publication;
   (b) conducted in the same manner as an ordinary election.

(5) The notice under section (4) shall be published –
   (a) where there is more than one vacancy, within 15 days after the occurrence of the last vacancy;
   (b) where there is only one vacancy, within 15 days after the occurrence of that vacancy.

(6) Where a casual vacancy occurs among nominated members of a local authority, the Minister may nominate a person, who must be qualified for such nomination, to fill the vacancy and shall publish the nomination in the Gazette.

(7) Where a casual vacancy occurs among elected members of a district council, the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with the procedure laid down in section 17 for the appointment of a member of the category in which the vacancy has occurred.

(8) Where a casual vacancy occurs among elected members of a village council, the vacancy shall be filled by the remaining members of the council who shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, appoint any person who is qualified for membership to be a member of the council.

(9) Where there are no remaining members or the remaining members fail to make any appointment within 30 days of the occurrence of the vacancy specified in sub section (8), the Minister may appoint such number of persons as may be required to bring the membership of the council to 12.

[Amended 48/91; 30/92]

38 Vacancy within 12 months of election
(1) Notwithstanding section 37 or any other enactment, no vacancy among elected members in a local authority, other than a village council, shall be filled where it occurs 12 months or less before the day on which elections for the constitution of such local authority are to be held unless the Minister, after consultation with the Lord Mayor or mayor or chairman, as the case may be, considers that it is in the public interest that that vacancy be filled.

(2) In the event that the number of remaining members of the local authority falls below the number required for a quorum of members of that authority, the Minister shall appoint such number of persons to be members of the local authority until the holding of such elections as may be necessary to ensure that there will be a quorum of members at meetings.

39 Acts not invalidated by vacancy
All acts done by a local authority shall, notwithstanding any vacancy in such local authority or that it is afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the election or appointment of a person purporting to be a member of the authority, be as valid as if no such vacancy or defect had existed.

40 Meetings and proceedings of local authorities
(1) Parts I, II and III of the Fourth Schedule shall have effect as respect the meetings and proceedings in council of local authorities.

(2) Parts IV and V of the Fourth Schedule shall have effect as respect the meetings and proceedings in committee of local authorities.

(3) The Minister may, after consultation with the local authorities concerned, by regulations amend the Fourth Schedule.

41 Disability because of interest
(1) (a) Where a member or an officer of a local authority has any pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or other matter and is present at a meeting of the local authority at which the contract or the other matter is the subject of consideration, he shall at the meeting, as soon as practicable after its commencement, disclose the fact, and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question with respect to, the contract or other matter.

(b) This section shall not apply to an interest in a contract or other matter which a member or an officer of a local authority may have as a rate payer or inhabitant of the area, or as an ordinary consumer of electricity or water, or to an interest in any matter relating to the terms on which the right to participate in any service, including the supply of goods, is offered to the public.

(2) (a) For the purposes of this section, a person shall, subject to paragraph (b), be treated as having indirectly a pecuniary interest in the contract or other matter, where –

(i) he or any nominee of his is a member of a company or other body with which the contract is made or is proposed to be made or which has a direct pecuniary interest in the other matter under consideration; or

(ii) he is a partner, or is in the employment, of a person with whom the contract is made or is proposed to be made or who has a direct pecuniary interest in the other matter under consideration.

(3) In the case of married persons living together, the interest of one spouse shall, if known to the other, be deemed for the purposes of this section to be also an interest of that other spouse.

(4) A general notice given in writing to the chief executive of the authority or the Permanent Secretary as the case may be by a member to the effect that he or his spouse is a member or is in the employment of a specified company or other body, or that he or his spouse is a partner or in the employment of a specified person shall, unless and until the notice is withdrawn, be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure of his interest in any contract, proposed contract, or other matter relating to that company or other body or to that person which may be the subject of consideration after the date of the notice.

(5) The chief executive of the authority shall record, in a book to be kept for the purpose, particulars of any disclosure made under subsection (1) and of any notice given under subsection (4), and the book shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of any member of the authority.

(6) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall for each offence be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding Rs 10,000, unless he proves that he did not know that a contract, proposed contract, or other matter in which he has a pecuniary interest was the subject of consideration at the meeting.

(7) A prosecution for an offence under this section shall not be instituted except by or on behalf of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(8) The President may, subject to such conditions as he thinks fit to impose, remove any disability imposed by this section in any case in which the number of members of the local authority so disabled at any one time would be so great a proportion of the whole as to impede the transaction of business, or in any other case in which it appears to the President that it is in the interest of the inhabitants of the area that the disability should be removed.

(9) The local authority may by resolution exclude any member from any meeting while any contract, proposed contract, or other matter in which he has such an interest is under consideration.

(10) In this section, “shares” includes stock.

[Amended 48/91; 30/92]

42 Proceedings in respect of qualifications

(1) (a) Proceedings may be instituted in the Supreme Court against any person acting as a member of a local authority or as a mayor or deputy mayor of a municipal council or chairman or vice-chairman of a district council or village council on the ground of his being disqualified within the meaning of this section for so acting, and proceedings may be instituted in the Supreme Court on the like ground against any person claiming to be entitled so to act.

(b) Proceedings under this section shall not be instituted after 6 months from the date on which he so acted.

(2) Where in proceedings instituted under this section it is proved that the defendant has acted as a member of a local authority, or as a mayor or deputy mayor or as chairman or vice-chairman while disqualified for so acting, the court may –

(a) make a declaration to that effect and declare that the office in which the defendant has acted is vacant;

(b) grant an injunction restraining the defendant from so acting;

(c) order that the defendant shall forfeit to the Government such sum as the court thinks fit, not exceeding 10,000 rupees for each occasion on which he so acted while disqualified.
(3) Where in proceedings instituted under this section in the Supreme Court it is proved that the defendant claims to act as a member of a local authority, or as mayor or deputy mayor or as chairman or vice-chairman and is disqualified for so acting, the court may make a declaration to that effect and declare that the office in which the defendant claims to be entitled to act is vacant and grant an injunction restraining him from so acting.

(4) No proceedings shall be instituted under this section by any person other than –
(a) in the case of a local authority other than a district council, a local government elector for the area of the local authority concerned;
(b) in the case of a district council, a local government elector having right to vote for the election of village council within the district.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to be disqualified for acting as a member of a local authority, or as mayor or deputy mayor or as chairman or vice-chairman –
(a) where he is not qualified to be, or is disqualified for being, a member of the authority, or for holding that office; or
(b) where he has ceased to be a member of the authority, or to hold that office for any of the reasons mentioned in section 33 or 34.

43 Actions for acts done under this Act

(1) Every civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding by any person for any fact, act or omission, against a local authority acting in execution or intended execution of this Act or in respect of any alleged neglect or default in the execution of this Act shall, under pain of nullity be instituted within 2 years of the date of the fact, act or omission which has given rise to such action, suit or other proceeding.

(2) No such civil action, suit or proceeding, shall be instituted unless one month’s prior written notice of it, and of the subject-matter of the complaint, has been given to the defendant, and where such notice is given no evidence shall be produced at the trial except of the cause of action contained in the notice and in default of proof at the trial that such notice was given, the defendant shall be entitled to judgment with costs.

(3) Where prior to the institution of any such civil action, suit or proceedings, the defendant has offered to the complainant an indemnity which is determined to be sufficient by the court before which the case is brought or where after any such civil action, suit or proceeding has been commenced, the defendant deposited with the registrar of the court a sum of money which the court determines to be sufficient as damages or indemnity to the complainant, the case shall be dismissed, subject to such order as to costs as the court may think fit.

(4) Where in any such civil action, suit or proceeding the court certifies on the record that the defendant acted upon reasonable or probable cause, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to more than nominal damages, or to any costs.

(5) (a) No action, prosecution or proceeding shall lie against any member of a local authority acting in execution or intended execution of this Act or in respect of any alleged neglect or default in the execution of this Act unless –
(i) there is against such member direct proof of corruption or malice;
(ii) the action is commenced within 2 years after the cause of action or complaint has accrued; and
(iii) notice of the action is served on the member 30 days before the action is brought.
(b) Where judgment is in his favour, the defendant shall be entitled to twice the amount of his taxed costs.

(6) Without prejudice to any other powers, the local authority, where the defendant in any action, prosecution or proceedings under this section is one of its members or its officer, agent or servant, may if it thinks fit, pay out of the funds of the authority the whole or any part of any sums payable by the defendant in or in consequence of the action, prosecution or proceeding whether in respect of costs, charges, expenses, damages, fines or otherwise.

(7) Where the subject-matter of the action relates to any question which is covered by the certificate of the Director of Audit, no action at law shall be brought under this section.

[Amended 29/92]

44 Privilege of councillors

(1) No action shall lie against any member of a local authority in respect of any statement or communication made by the member to the local authority, where the member has an interest or duty, legal, social or moral to make the statement or communication to the authority and the authority has a corresponding interest or duty to receive the statement or communication.

(2) The privilege conferred by subsection (1) shall extend only to a statement or communication upon the subject with respect to which the privilege exists, and shall not extend to anything that is not inherent or pertinent to the discharge of the duty, of the exercise of the right, or the safeguarding of the interest, which creates the privilege.

45 Protection of councillors against outrage
Sections 156 (1), 158 (1) and 160 of the Criminal Code shall extend to cases of outrage and violence against, and shall be applicable to, a mayor, deputy mayor, municipal councillor, chairman, vice-chairman and members of a district council or village council.

PART III – COMMITTEES AND JOINT COMMITTEES

46 Appointment of committees
(1) A local authority, other than a village council,
   (a) shall appoint a finance committee;
   (b) may appoint such other committees for any other general or special purpose as in the opinion of the local authority would be better regulated and managed by means of a committee; and
   (c) delegate to a committee so appointed, with or without restrictions or conditions, as it thinks fit, any functions exercisable by the local authority either with respect to the whole or a part of the area of the local authority, except the power of levying a rate, or of borrowing money.

(2) (a) The number of members of a Committee appointed under this section, their term of office, and any area within which the committee is to exercise its authority, shall be fixed by the local authority.
   (b) The number fixed under paragraph (a) shall not be more than 12, and the quorum of such committees shall be 5 members.

(3) Every member of a committee appointed under this section who at the time of his appointment was a member of the local authority by whom he was appointed shall, upon ceasing to be a member of the authority, also cease to be a member of the committee.

(4) All decisions taken by any committee under delegated powers shall be reported to the authority at the next council meeting.

[Amended 30/92]

47 Appointment of joint committees
(1) (a) A local authority may concur with any one or more other local authorities in appointing from among their respective members a joint committee of those authorities for any purpose in which they are jointly interested, and may delegate to the committee, with or without restrictions or conditions, as it thinks fit, any functions of the local authority relating to the purpose for which the joint committee is formed, except the power of levying a rate, or of borrowing money.
   (b) Where a local authority concurs in appointing a joint committee for the discharge of any functions which under any enactment the authority is authorised or required to discharge through a committee appointed under that enactment, and that enactment contains any special provisions with respect to the constitution and functions of that committee, those provisions shall apply to the constitution and functions of the joint committee with any modifications, as the case may require.

(2) Subject to this section, the number of members of a joint committee appointed under this section, the term of office of its members, and any area within which the joint committee is to exercise its authority, shall be fixed by the appointing authorities.

(3) Every member of a joint committee appointed under this section who at the time of his appointment was a member of the local authority by whom he was appointed shall, upon ceasing to be a member of that authority, also cease to be a member of the joint committee.

48 Expenses and accounts of joint committees
(1) The expenses incurred by a joint committee appointed under this Part shall be defrayed by the local authorities by whom the committee is appointed in such proportions as they may agree upon or, in case of disagreement, as may be determined by the Minister.

(2) The accounts of a joint committee appointed under this Part shall be made up yearly to the last day of the financial year and the provisions of this Act relating to the audit of 49 Disqualification for membership of committees

A person who is disqualified under Part II for being elected or being a member of a local authority shall be disqualified for being a member of a committee or sub committee of that authority, or for being a representative of that authority on a joint committee appointed by agreement between the authority and other local authorities whether the committee, sub committee or joint committee is appointed under this Part or under any other enactment, and section 42 shall apply as respects any such person with the substitution for references to membership of a local authority, of references to membership of the committee, sub committee or joint committee.

50 Voting disability of committee member

Section 41 shall apply in respect of members of a committee or sub committee of a local authority or of any joint committee appointed by agreement between local authorities, whether the committee, sub committee or joint committee is appointed under this Part or under any other enactment, as that section applies in respect of members of local authorities, subject to the following modifications –

(a) in respect to members of a committee or sub committee, references to meetings of the committee or sub committee shall be substituted for references to meetings of the local authority; and

(b) in respect to members of any such joint committee, references to meetings of the joint committee shall be substituted for references to meetings of the local authority, and references to the chief executive to the joint committee for references to the chief executive of the authority.

PART IV – SERVICES OF LOCAL AUTHORITIES

51 Duties of municipal and district councils

(1) Subject to this section, a municipal or district council shall within the limits of the area under its jurisdiction be responsible for –

(a) subject to the Roads Act –

(i) the cleansing and lighting of all motorways and main roads;

(ii) the construction, care, maintenance, improvement, cleansing and lighting of all public roads;

(k) the provision and maintenance of parking places for private cars;

(l) the control of pollution causing a public and private nuisance;

(m) the control of hawkers;

(n) the organisation of welfare, sports and cultural activities;
the provision and maintenance of traffic centres, including bus stations, lorry stands and stands of other public vehicles;
(p) any undertaking approved by the Minister.

(2) In the exercise of its functions under section (1), a local authority may close or divert, temporarily or permanently, and alter, widen, raise or lower, any public roads and carry out all necessary works in the area including the planting and felling of trees or shrubs and the digging of wells and conduits.

(3) Where any closure or diversion under this section is likely to be permanent, or where any widening requires the demolition of buildings of a greater value than what may be prescribed, the resolution whereby such closure or diversion or widening is decided shall be subject to the approval of the Minister, and no work shall be undertaken until notification of it has been published in 2 consecutive issues of the Gazette, and notice of the resolution has been sent to all persons whose premises may be injuriously affected by such work, by registered post at the residence or at the last known place of residence of such persons.

(4) The traffic on any public road may be temporarily stopped and controlled by order of the Commissioner of Police.

(5) Where a local authority fails to carry out any of the duties referred to in subsection (1) (a), (b), (e) and (l), the Minister may intervene to cause to be carried by another party any such duties and any expenses defrayed in that respect shall be borne by the local authority or may be deductible from any grant payable to the local authority.

(6) A local authority may by regulations provide for the procedure for carrying out the duties listed at subsection (1) which may include the levy of a fee and the publication of such regulation shall not require the approval of the Minister.

(7) For the purposes of carrying out its duties, a municipal or district council shall have five departments, namely the Chief Executive’s Department, the Finance Department, the Works Department, the Health Department and the Welfare Department.

[Amended 34/91; 48/91; 30/92] [Note]

52 Duties of village councils

(1) Subject to this section, a village council shall, within the limits of the area under its jurisdiction, be responsible for –
   (a) the organisation of sports activities;
   (b) the organisation of general welfare and cultural activities;
   (c) the running of pre-primary schools and sewing classes;
   (d) the maintenance of cremation grounds and other public health facilities;
   (e) the performance generally of any public works to promote the sanitation and cleanliness of the village and the well being of the inhabitants.

(2) A village council may, subject to the approval of the Minister, carry out any other duties assigned to municipal and district councils under section 51.

53 Sanitation in Port Louis

(1) Subject to any enactment relating to buildings, quarantine, drainage or sewerage, the Municipal Council of Port Louis may take measures for the construction, repair, maintenance, cleansing and general care of all drains, sewers, gutters and cross gutters in the town of Port Louis.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the Port Louis Sewerage Act and the control of the sewerage system and of any extension of it which shall remain vested in the Government, and the Council shall not object to, oppose or hinder, any digging or other works consequent thereon or incidental thereto, where notice has been duly given to the Council.

54 Abatement of nuisance

(1) Where the Sanitary Authority is –
   (a) satisfied that any nuisance exists on, or in respect of, any road, bridge, building or other place mentioned in section 51; or
   (b) of opinion that –
      (i) the construction, repair or cleansing of any gutter or drain; or
      (ii) the alteration, improvement or repair of any building, work or construction on premises situate within or outside the boundaries of a local authority and belonging to, or under the management of, a local authority is required in the interest of public health, the Sanitary Authority shall, by order in writing, call upon the local authority to cause the nuisance to be abated or the works to be commenced within a fixed period of time.

Where the local authority is satisfied with an order of the Sanitary Authority made under subsection (1), it may within 7 days of the receipt of the order serve upon the Sanitary Authority a summons calling upon it to show cause before the District Magistrate why such order should not be set aside, suspended, varied or otherwise dealt with, as the case may be.

(b) The Magistrate may hear and determine the case, whatever be the amount involved, as an ordinary civil case, and confirm, set aside, suspend, vary or otherwise deal with, the order, or extend the time fixed for compliance therewith.

(c) An appeal shall lie to the Supreme Court from the judgment of the Magistrate, and shall be proceeded with and determined in the same manner as provided for appeals from judgments of Magistrates in civil matters.

Where the local authority –

(i) does not cause a summons to be served on the Sanitary Authority under subsection (2) within the time specified; or

(ii) has caused such summons to be served and the order of the Sanitary Authority has been confirmed by the Magistrate, or by the Supreme Court on appeal, whether subject to any conditions or not, and the local authority has failed to take steps or sufficient steps to comply with the order to the Sanitary Authority within such time as may have been fixed in the order, or by the Magistrate, or by the Supreme Court, as the case may be, for compliance with the order, the Sanitary Authority shall notify the Minister in that behalf.

(b) Upon being so informed the Minister may cause such nuisance to be abated, or such works to be carried out, as the case may be, and all the expenses in respect of the abatement of nuisance or the carrying out of works shall be charged to the local authority and deducted from any sums payable by Government to the local authority.

In this section “nuisance” has the same meaning as in section 18 of the Public Health Act.

55 Thoroughfares on private property

Where any person makes a street, lane, alley, or thoroughfare on his land with the intention of dedicating it to the public, he shall, prior to making the street, lane, alley or thoroughfare, give notice of his intention to the local authority concerned and such street, lane, alley or thoroughfare shall not be made nor dedicated until the local authority has expressed its approval of it and of the manner in which it has been made.

The local authority shall give a name to such street, lane, alley or thoroughfare.

56 Powers of urban authorities beyond town

Notwithstanding section 4, the areas, places, property and undertakings specified in Part I of the Fifth Schedule shall be exclusively controlled, managed, superintended and maintained by, and all revenues therefrom shall accrue to, the urban authority specified in that Schedule.

The President may by regulations amend Part I of the Fifth Schedule.

[Amended 48/91]

57 Port Louis Fire Brigade Service

The Municipal Council of Port Louis -

(a) shall maintain a Fire Brigade Service for the town and district of Port Louis; and

(b) may make regulations for the organisation of the Fire Brigade and generally for ensuring its efficiency.

The officer in charge of the Service may, in case of fire -

(a) draw water from any water supplying device; and

(b) cause the water supply to be shut off in any area to give a better supply for extinguishing the fire.

The municipal council may, subject to the approval of the Central Water Authority, provide and maintain fire hydrants and other installations for the supply of water in case of fire.

No person shall, without lawful authority or reasonable excuse, use or otherwise interfere with a hydrant or other installation referred to in paragraph (a).
(4) Where a vehicle of the Service is proceeding on a road and its driver sounds a bell, a siren or a multitoned horn, every person who is driving or in charge of a vehicle shall forthwith give way to the Service vehicle.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (3) (b) or (4) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs 10,000 and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

(6) Section 57 may be repealed by Proclamation.

No market or fair shall be erected or opened in a town or village except by the approval of the municipal or district council, as the case may be, or with its leave granted on such conditions as that authority may impose, provided that the previous approval of the site by the Sanitary Authority shall be obtained and that the construction and sanitary arrangements of the market or fair shall be in conformity with the sanitary regulations provided in that behalf.

61 Occupation of stalls inside markets

(1) Subject to sections 158 and 159, a municipal or district council which has the control and management of a market or other premises in any town or village may, after calling for tenders and by contract authorise any person to occupy any stall, shop or other place inside the market or other premises.

(2) The authorisation under subsection (1) shall be granted for a period of not more than 3 years and may at the end of that period, be renewed by the authority.

(3) Except with the approval of the Minister, the local authority shall not –

(a) suspend, revoke, or fail to renew an authorisation granted under subsection (1);

(b) where it has the option not to renew a contract entered under subsection (1) exercise that option; or

(c) whether at the time of renewal or otherwise, vary the terms and conditions of an authorisation granted under subsection (1).

62 Sale of articles outside markets

(1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), a municipal or district council may, upon payment of a fee accruing to the authority, issue permits for the opening of shops and stalls outside the markets situate in the town or village for the sale of such articles as may be specified in regulations made by the Authority;

(b) the site, construction and sanitary arrangements of such shops and stalls shall be in conformity with any enactment relating to sanitation.

(2) The articles referred to in subsection (1) shall not be sold except in the shops and stalls in respect of which permits have been granted.

(3) Regulations made under subsection (1) may provide for the payment of different fees in respect of different permits according to the description of the articles to be sold in such shops or stalls.

(4) Any permit granted under this section may be cancelled by the local authority where the provisions of any enactment relating to these articles are not complied with.

(5) The publication of regulations specified in subsection (1) (a) and (3) shall not require the approval of the Minister.

PART V – OFFICERS

63 Employees of local authorities
1. The Local Government Service Commission shall appoint to every local authority for the efficient discharge of its functions fit and proper persons to posts which the Minister may prescribe by Order published in the Gazette.

2. No person shall be appointed to a post on the establishment of a local authority unless he holds the qualifications specified by the Permanent Secretary.

3. (a) The salary structure and conditions of service applicable to posts of local authorities shall be approved by the Minister.

   (b) Except as may be otherwise prescribed, all conditions of service applicable to the Public Service shall apply to the Local Government Service.

4. The qualifications and schedule of duties applicable to posts of local authorities shall be specified in writing by the Permanent Secretary with the agreement of the Local Government Service Commission and after consultation with the chief executive of the local authority.

5. (a) Subject to subsection (b), the chief executive of a local authority shall have the overall responsibility for the administration of the local authority and all officers of the authority shall be responsible to him.

   (b) The Permanent Secretary shall determine all applications for leave without pay made by local government employees.

6. All employees of a village council shall be deemed to be employees of the district council having jurisdiction over that village council.

[Amended 30/92]

64 Powers of inspectors

1. Subject to subsection (2), every inspector of a local authority –

   (a) shall have the powers, privileges and immunities and perform the duties of a police officer in the execution of all summonses and orders issued in relation to any offence against a law relating to a local authority or an offence committed within the limits of the town under any enactment specified in the Seventh Schedule;

   (b) may seize any article or animal which is the subject matter of an offence under any enactment relating to a local authority where –

      (i) the seizure is necessary for the purpose of establishing the offence; or

      (ii) the article or animal is liable to confiscation;

   (c) may, without warrant, arrest any person for any offence under any enactment relating to a local authority where the person –

      (i) not being known to him, refuses to give his name and address or gives a name and address which he has reason to consider to be false; or

      (ii) runs away or attempts to run away, rescues any article way obstructs, hinders, opposes or molests the inspector;

   (d) shall wear such uniform, and carry such staff or other insignia of office as the local authority shall, with the approval of the Minister, determine.

2. (a) Any offender who is so arrested pursuant to subsection 1 (1) (c) shall be taken forthwith to the nearest police station and the officer for the time being in charge of the station, if he is satisfied with respect to the name, position and place of abode of the person arrested, may release him provisionally after recording all the particulars concerning the case in the occurrence book of the station.

   (b) If the person arrested is not released, he shall be taken as soon as possible before a Magistrate.

65 Vacancies

1. Where a vacancy occurs in respect of a local government office, the chief executive of the local authority concerned, shall, within 15 days of the occurrence of the vacancy, inform the Local Government Service Commission of the vacancy and make recommendations to the Commission as to whether or not –

   (a) the vacancy ought to be filled in a permanent temporary or acting capacity; or

   (b) the functions of the vacant office ought to be assigned to a local government officer, giving reasons for his recommendations.

2. The Commission may accept or reject any recommendation made under subsection (1) but vacancies should not, unless so decided by the Permanent Secretary, be left unfilled for a period of more than six months.
Where the Commission appoints a person to act in a vacancy or assigns to a local government officer the functions of a vacant office, the person so appointed or to whom the functions have been assigned, as the case may be, shall have the powers, rights and duties of the person in whose place he is to act.

No local authority shall, without the authorisation of the Permanent Secretary, alter the terms of any scheme of service relating to a local government office which is vacant.

The Permanent Secretary may decide that a vacant post should not be filled and he shall so inform the Commission and the local authority.

66 Security to be given by officers

(1) A local authority shall, in the case of an officer employed by it, whether under this or any other enactment, who by reason of his office or employment is likely to be entrusted with the custody or control of money, and may, in the case of any other officer employed by it, require him to give or itself take, such security for the faithful execution of his office and for his duly accounting for all money or property which may be entrusted to him as the local authority thinks sufficient.

(2) Where any security furnished under this section expires and is not renewed by the officer concerned within 15 days of the date of expiry such officer shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

(3) No member of a local authority shall stand as surety for the purposes of this section for an officer employed by that authority.

67 Accountability of officers

(1) Every officer employed by a local authority, whether under this Act or any other enactment, shall at such time during the continuance of his office, or within 3 months after his ceasing to hold it, and in such manner as the local authority may direct, submit a true account in writing of all money and property committed to his charge, and of his receipts and payments, with vouchers and other documents and records supporting the entries, and a list of persons from whom or to whom money is due in connection with his office showing the amount due from or to each.

(2) Every such officer shall pay all money due from him to the local authority, or otherwise, as the authority may direct.

(3) Where any such officer –

(a) refuses or wilfully neglects to make any payment which he is required by this section to make; or

(b) after 3 days notice in writing, signed by the chief executive of the local authority and given or left at his usual or last known place of residence, refuses or wilfully neglects to make out or deliver to the authority, or as the chief executive directs any account or list which he is required by this section to make out and deliver, or any voucher or other documents or record relating thereto, or to give satisfaction respecting it to the authority or as the chief executive directs, the District Magistrate may, on complaint by the local authority, by order require him to make such payment or delivery or to give such satisfaction.

(4) Nothing in this section shall affect any remedy by action against such officer or his surety, except that the officer shall not be amenable to both civil proceedings and criminal prosecution for the same cause.

68 Councillors not to be officers

No person shall, so long as he is, and for 12 months after he ceases to be a member of a local authority, be appointed in that authority to any paid office, other than the office of mayor and chairman.

69 Protection of officers of local authority

Sections 156 (3), 159 and 160 of the Criminal Code Act shall extend to cases of outrage and violence against officers of local authorities appointed under this Part.

70 Responsibilities of chief executive

(1) The Minister may report to the Local Government Service Commission any chief executive who in his opinion has failed to exercise administrative and financial control in accordance with his responsibilities.

(2) Where the Commission is of the opinion that disciplinary action should be taken against the chief executive, following a report under subsection (1), the Permanent Secretary shall draw up any appropriate charge after consulting the Solicitor-General.
71 Grants to local authorities

(1) (a) In each financial year there may be paid to a local authority a grant of an amount calculated according to such formula as may be prescribed by the Minister.

(b) The formula for the payment of grants under this section shall operate for such period and on such conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) The Minister may, subject to this subsection and to the approval of the President, reduce any grant payable to a local authority by such amount as he thinks just where –

(a) he is satisfied upon representation made to him or otherwise that the authority has failed to achieve or maintain a reasonable standard of efficiency and progress in the discharge of its functions; or

(b) he is satisfied that the requirements of this Act or any of the conditions imposed under subsection (1) are not being complied with.

[Amended 48/91]

72 Local Government Finance Board

(1) There is established for the purposes of this Act a Local Government Finance Board.

(2) The Board shall be composed of such members as may be prescribed.

(3) The Board shall, after consultation with the local authorities and other interested parties –

(a) advise the Minister on the determination and application of the formula to be used for calculating the amount of the grant to be paid to a local authority; and

(b) on any other matter under this Part.

(4) Where the Minister is required to perform any function or make any decision relating to financial matters under this Act he may, before doing so, consult the Board.

73 Interpretation for purpose of Part VI

In sections 73 to 98 –

“agricultural land” –

(a) means land used as arable meadow or pasture ground only, land used for a plantation or a wood or for the growth of saleable underwood, market garden, nursery grounds, orchards or allotments; or

(b) excludes land occupied together with a house as a park, gardens, or a pleasure ground or land kept for purposes of sport or recreation, or land used as a race course.

“Council” means a municipal council;

“owner” means, in respect of any property –

(a) the person who receives, or if such property were to be let, would be entitled to receive the rent, whether for his own benefit or that of any other person; or

(b) where the owner cannot be found or ascertained, the occupier;

“rates” includes any surcharge or costs incurred in connection with the payment of rates;

“rating area” means the town concerned;

“tenant” excludes the tenant of premises used solely for private residential purposes;

“treasurer” means the person performing the duties of treasurer of the council concerned;

“Valuation Tribunal” means the Valuation Tribunal established under section 90.

74 General rate

(1) Every council shall, in the manner set out in this Act, levy a rate on the owner of any immovable property included in the valuation list prepared under section 78 the net annual value of which exceeds 1,750 rupees.

(2) The general rate leviable under subsection (1) shall be such percentage of the net annual value of the immovable property as the council may by regulations determine.
A council may levy different rates in respect of immovable properties having the same net annual value taking into consideration whether the properties are being used for residential business, commercial or industrial purposes.

For the purposes of the provisions of this Act relating to assessment for, and levy of the general rate, property or any part thereof in respect of which the rate is to be levied shall be dealt with in such units as the Valuation Office may determine.

The general rate shall not be levied in respect of –

(a) any property belonging to the Government;
(b) any property belonging to and occupied by any foreign government or any organisation or body accorded diplomatic immunity under any enactment;
(c) any property owned and occupied by a council and lying within its own rating area;
(d) any church, chapel, mosque, temple or similar building used solely as a place of public religious worship;
(e) any agricultural building or agricultural land;
(f) any property belonging to the Curepipe War Memorial Board or to the Austin Wilson Home.

Every council may decide that no general rate or that a part only of the general rate shall be levied in any financial year in respect of –

(a) any property belonging to and occupied solely by a religious institution;
(b) any property used for the purpose of a Government primary school or a primary school in receipt of grant-in-aid from Government funds;
(c) any property used solely as an orphanage, an infirmary, or a creche;
(d) any property or any part thereof –
   (i) used for the purpose of training its members for sporting competitions or used for social and cultural activities; and
   (ii) owned by an association registered under the Registration of Associations Act, the main objects of which are the promotion of sport and the training of its members for competitive sports and the promotion of social and cultural activities.

The Minister may, by regulations, provide that no general rate or that a part only of the general rate shall be levied in respect of –

(a) any property used for the purpose of an approved secondary school registered under the Education Act, where the general rate in respect of the property is leviable on the person who is responsible financially for the administration of the school;
(b) any property belonging to the Central Electricity Board and used in connection with the generation, transmission and distribution of electricity;
(c) any property or any part thereof used solely for the purpose of an industry or hotel in respect of which a development certificate or an EPZ certificate or a hotel and management certificate has been given under any enactment, provided the owner of the property is the company to whom such certificate has been given;
(d) any property, where the Minister considers it expedient.

Every council may, subject to the approval of the Minister, remit the whole or part of the general rate payable by any person on account of his property.

The Minister may require the council to submit a return showing the persons who have obtained a remission, either in whole or in part, of the general rate together with the amount remitted in each case, and stating the reason for such remission, and may, if not satisfied, that any such remission was satisfied, direct that the amount so remitted be collected from the ratepayer.

Subject to subsection (10), any exemption granted under this section shall be of no effect if granted more than 12 months after the rate has become due.

Where the Minister grants an exemption under subsection (7) (d), the exemption may be granted at any time within 24 months of the date on which the rate become due.

75 Operation and incidence of rate

The general rate shall be levied in respect of a period commencing in the case of the first general rate made under this Act on 1 July in such year as may by regulations be fixed by the Council in respect of any rating area, and in the case of any subsequent general rate immediately after the expiration of the last preceding period in respect of which the general rate was levied and terminating on the last day of any financial year, unless the Council in the resolution making the rate, specified such date other than the last day of the year in respect of the rate made under the resolution.

76 Rate due and payable

(1) Any general rate levied under this Act in respect of any year shall become due as from 1 July of that year and shall be payable in 2 equal instalments, as the Council may by regulations prescribe.

(2) (a) Where any general rate is not paid within the appropriate periods prescribed in the regulations –

(i) a surcharge of 10 per cent shall be made on the amount of the rate due and payable;

(ii) the Council shall within one year of the date on which the rate becomes due take action for the recovery of the rate in accordance with section 114.

(b) The Council may grant to any ratepayer such time for payment as it thinks fit not exceeding 4 months where it is satisfied that the ratepayer is unable to pay the rate and surcharge due otherwise than by instalments.

(3) Where any instalment under subsection 2 (b) is not paid within 14 days of the date on which it fell due, the Council shall take action for the recovery of the whole rate and surcharge due and payable in accordance with subsection 2 (a) unless both the Council and the Minister are satisfied that the failure to comply with this section was due to causes beyond the ratepayer’s control.

(4) The date upon which any surcharge has been made shall be clearly indicated in any notice relating to the payment of the rate.

(5) The general rate shall, unless otherwise provided in this Act, be due and payable notwithstanding the fact that the ratepayer has not received a claim for such rate.

77 Fixing of rates

The Council shall fix such a rate as will be sufficient to provide for such part of the total estimated expenditure to be incurred by the Council during the period in respect of which the rate is made as is to be met out of money raised by rates, together with such additional amount as is in the opinion of the Council required to cover expenditure previously incurred or to meet contingencies or to defray any expenditure which may fall to be defrayed before the date on which the money to be received in respect of the next subsequent rate will become available.

78 Making of valuation lists

(1) (a) The Valuation Officer shall cause to be prepared a valuation list with respect to all immovable properties, the net annual value of which exceeds 1,750 rupees, situate in the rating area, which shall come into operation on a date to be prescribed by regulations by the Council and thereafter new valuation lists shall be made from time to time and shall come into operation on such date or dates as the Council may by regulations prescribe, provided that the interval between the dates on which one valuation list and the next succeeding valuation list, respectively, come into operation shall be a period of not less than 5 years.

(b) Where additions, improvements or alterations are made to any immovable property within the period of 5 years, the immovable property shall be assessed as soon as may be after the completion of such additions and improvements.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b), such additions, improvements, and alterations shall be reported forthwith to the Council on a prescribed form by the owner of the property. Failure to do so shall constitute an offence liable to a fine not exceeding Rs 5,000.

(2) The Valuation Officer shall, as soon as may be after a new valuation list has been prepared, sign the list and deliver it to the chief executive who shall cause it to be deposited at a suitable place in the Council Chamber.

(3) Valuation lists shall contain such particulars as the Council may by regulation prescribe.

79 Returns

(1) Where a new valuation list is to be made, the Valuation Officer may serve a notice on the occupier, owner or lessee of any premises in the area, or on any one or more of them, requiring him or them to make a return containing such particulars as may be reasonably required for the purpose of enabling him accurately to compile the list.

(2) The Valuation Officer may, in connection with a proposal which has been made for the alteration of a valuation list, serve a notice on the occupier, owner or lessee of any premises on the valuation area requiring him or them to make a return containing such particulars as may be reasonably required for the purpose of enabling him accurately to compile the list.
in the area or any one or more of them requiring him or them to make a return containing such particulars as may be reasonably required for the purpose of enabling him to decide whether or not to make or, as the case may be, to object to the proposal.

(3) Every person on whom a notice to make a return is served under this section shall, within 21 days after the date of the service of the notice, make a return in such form as is required in such notice and deliver it in the manner so required to the Valuation Officer.

(4) Where any person on whom notice has been served under this section fails without reasonable excuse to comply with the notice or supplies information which is false or calculated to mislead the Valuation Officer, he shall commit an offence and shall for each offence be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 5,000 rupees.

(5) Where a person is convicted under section (4) in respect of a failure to comply with a notice or of supplying incorrect information and the failure continues after the conviction, then, unless he has reasonable excuse for the continuance of the failure, he shall commit a further offence under subsection (4).

(6) Any person who, in a return made under this section, makes a statement which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly makes a statement which is false in a material particular, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs 10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

80 Gross and net annual value

(1) (a) For the purpose of valuation lists to be prepared under this Act, the gross annual value of any immovable property shall be taken to be the annual rent the property might reasonably be expected to yield, if let for the first time on or about such date as may be prescribed by the Council, and if the landlord undertook to bear the cost of the repairs and insurance and any other expenses necessary to maintain the property in a state to command that rent.

(b) In estimating the gross annual value of a property no account shall be taken of the value of any services which the landlord renders, or procures to be rendered, to the tenant, either alone or in common with other tenants of the landlord, other than the provision of, or repairs to, or maintenance of, the property.

(2) The net annual value of a property shall be ascertained as follows –

(a) in the case of property belonging to the classes specified in the first column of the Sixth Schedule there shall be deducted from the gross annual value of the property the amount not exceeding the deduction specified with respect of that class in the second column of the Sixth Schedule and the gross annual value so reduced shall be taken to be the net annual value;

(b) in the case of any property of which the net annual value, ascertained in accordance with this subsection, is less than 6 per cent of the compulsory purchase price, the net annual value of such property shall be entered in the valuation list at an amount equal to 6 per cent, or such higher percentage as may be prescribed by the Council, of the compulsory purchase price, and no gross annual value shall be entered in respect of such property;

(c) the amount of the net annual value shall be calculated to nearest 5 rupees.

(3) In this section, “compulsory purchase price”, in relation to any property, means the amount of compensation (excluding any compensation for disturbance, or for severance or injurious affection) which would be payable on the compulsory acquisition by Government, in pursuance of a notification published under section 8 of the Land Acquisition Act, at the date of the assessment, of an unencumbered interest in the property free of all servitudes.

81 Alteration of valuation lists

(1) The Council or any ratepayer aggrieved –

(a) by the inclusion in, or omission from, the valuation list of any property; or

(b) by any value ascribed in the valuation list to a property or by any other statements made or omitted to be made in the valuation list with respect to a property, may make a proposal for the alteration of the list accordingly.

(2) The Valuation Officer may make a proposal for any alteration of the valuation list.

(3) In this section and in section 82, “ratepayer” includes any person liable under this Act for payment of general rates and any person liable under Part II of the Plaines Wilhems Sewerage Act for payment of sewerage rates.

82 Proceedings on proposals
(1) Every proposal for the alteration of the valuation list shall—
   (a) be made in writing and, except where it is made by the Valuation Officer, be served on the Valuation Officer;
   (b) specify the grounds on which the proposal is supported;
   (c) comply with any regulations made with respect to the making of proposals.

(2) The Valuation Officer shall, within 28 days after the date on which a proposal is served on him or within 7 days after a proposal is made by him, as the case may be, transmit a copy of the proposal, together with a statement in writing of a right of objection conferred by this section to each of the following persons not being the maker of the proposal—
   (a) any ratepayer charged with the rates in respect of the property to which the proposal relates; and
   (b) the Council for the area in which the property in question is situate.

(3) Any person on whom notice has been served under subsection (2) may, within 28 days of the date on which the notice was served, serve on the Valuation Officer notice in writing of objection to the proposal and the Valuation Officer shall, within 28 days of the date on which a notice of objection is served on him, transmit a copy thereof to the maker of the proposal.

(4) Where in the case of a proposal—
   (a) no notice of objection is served within the time limited by subsection (3), or every such notice is unconditionally withdrawn; and
   (b) either the proposal was made by the Valuation Officer or he is satisfied that the proposal is well-founded, the Valuation Officer shall cause the valuation list to be altered so as to give effect to the proposal.

(5) Where the conditions specified in subsection (4) are not fulfilled in the case of a proposal, but—
   (a) all the persons where agreement is requisite agree on an alteration of the list, whether the alteration is that specified in the proposal or not; and
   (b) the agreement is reached without, or before the determination of, any appeal to the Valuation Tribunal with respect to an objection to the proposal, the Valuation Officer shall cause that alteration to be made in the list.

(6) In the case of a proposal to which neither subsection (4) or (5) applies—
   (a) where notice of objection to the proposal has been served and not unconditionally withdrawn, and the proposal is not withdrawn, the Valuation Officer may, within the 6 months beginning with the relevant date, and shall not later than the end of that period, transmit a copy of the proposal, and of every notice of objection which has not been unconditionally withdrawn, to the President of the Valuation Tribunal appointed under this Act;
   (b) where the proposal was made otherwise than by the Valuation Officer, he may, within the 5 months beginning with the relevant date, give notice in writing to the person who made the proposal that he objects to the proposal, and that the person, if he does not withdraw the proposal within 14 days, will be treated as intending to appeal against the Valuation Officer’s objection to the proposal;
   (c) not less than 14 nor more than 20 days after the Valuation Officer has given notice under paragraph (b), he shall, unless the proposal has been withdrawn, transmit a copy of the proposal to the President of the Valuation Tribunal, together with a copy of the notice under paragraph (b), and of any notice of objection to the proposal which has been served under subsection (3) and has not been unconditionally withdrawn;
   (d) where after 6 months from the relevant date the Valuation Officer has not given notice under paragraph (b), and no notice under subsection (3) has been served, or every such notice has been unconditionally withdrawn, then the Valuation Officer shall be taken to be satisfied that the proposal is well-founded, and subsection (4) shall apply accordingly.

(7) Where, in accordance with subsection (6), the Valuation Officer transmits a copy of the proposal to the President of the Valuation Tribunal—
   (a) he shall forthwith notify the fact that he has done so to the person who made the proposal, to any person who served a notice of objection of which copy is transmitted with the copy of the proposal, and to the Council; and
   (b) the transmission of a copy of a proposal under subsection (6) shall have effect as an appeal to the Valuation Tribunal, by the person who made the proposal, against every objection (whether of the Valuation Officer or of any other person), signified by a notice of which a copy is transmitted with the copy of the proposal.

(8) The persons whose agreement is requisite for the purpose of subsection (5) (a) are –

(a) the Valuation Officer;
(b) the person who made the proposal where the proposal was not made by the Valuation Officer;
(c) any person who has served, and who has not withdrawn, a valid notice of objection to the proposal;
(d) any ratepayer charged with rates on the property to which the proposal relates, where he is not included by virtue of paragraph (b) or (c); and
(e) the Council, if not included by paragraphs (a) to (d), unless it has notified the Valuation Officer that it does not desire to be included by virtue of this paragraph, either generally or as respects a class of property which includes the property to which the proposal relates.

83 Alteration made under proposals

(1) An alteration made in the valuation list in pursuance of a proposal, whether under section 82 or in accordance with a decision of the Valuation Tribunal or the Supreme Court, shall, subject to the provisions of this section in relation to any rate current at the date when the proposal was served, be deemed to have had effect as from the commencement of the period in respect of which the rate was to be levied.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an alteration in the valuation list which –

(a) consists of the inclusion in the valuation list of a newly erected or newly constructed property or an altered property which has become unusable on account of structural alterations;
(b) is made by reason of a change in the value of a property caused by the making of structural alterations or by the total or partial destruction of any building or other erection by fire or any other physical cause; or
(c) is made by reason of any event whereby a property which is not liable, becomes liable, or which is liable, ceases to be liable, shall have effect only as from the date when the new or altered property becomes occupied or as from the happening of the event by reason of which the alteration is made.

(3) (a) Where in pursuance of a proposal an alteration is made in the valuation list which affects the amount of any rate levied in respect of any property in accordance with the list, the difference, if too much has been paid, shall be repaid or allowed or, if too little has been paid, shall be paid and may be recovered as if it were arrears of the rate.

(b) In the event of any rate being due under this subsection a claim for the amount due and payable shall be sent by the council within 14 days of the receipt of the notification from the Valuation Officer under sections 81 and 82.

(4) In the event of a newly erected property coming into valuation for the first time and any rate being due in respect of it the Council shall send to the ratepayer a claim for the amount due and payable within 14 days of the receipt of the notification from the Valuation Officer under sections 81 and 82.

84 Rate to be levied notwithstanding appeal

Any rate in respect of which the valuation list is conclusive shall be made and levied in accordance with the valuation list in force for the time being, and shall be collected and be recoverable notwithstanding any appeal which may be pending with respect to the list.

85 Clerical and arithmetical errors

(1) The Valuation Officer may cause to be made in the valuation list any alteration which is necessary to correct any clerical or arithmetical error in the list and the list shall have effect accordingly, but where the alteration is made in respect of any matter other than totals, the Valuation Officer shall, before causing the alteration to be made, send notice to the owner of the property affected, and shall allow 14 days to elapse during which the owner may object to the proposed alteration.

(2) Section 82 (3) to (6) shall apply with any necessary modification to any objection made under subsection (1).

86 Notice regarding general rate

The notice on which the general rate is levied shall specify –

(a) the situation of the property in respect of which the notice is issued and such description of the property as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of identification;
(b) the period in respect of which the rate is payable;
(c) the net annual value of the property;
(d) the percentage at which the rate is charged.

87 Service of notices
(1) Any notice or other documents required or authorised to be sent or served under or for the purposes of this Act relating to the assessment, levy and payment of the general rate may be sent or served either –
(a) by delivering it to the person to or on whom it is to be sent or served;
(b) by leaving it at the usual or last known place of abode of that person, or in the case of a company, at its registered office;
(c) by forwarding it by post addressed to that person at his usual or last known place of abode, or in the case of a company, at its registered office;
(d) by delivering it to some person apparently of at least the age of 16, on the premises to which it relates or where there is no person on the premises to whom it can be so delivered, then by fixing it on some conspicuous part of the premises; or
(e) without prejudice to paragraphs (a) to (d) where the property to which the notice or document relates is a place of business of the person to or on whom it is to be sent or served, by leaving it at, or forwarding it by registered post addressed to, that person at the same place of business.

88 Inspection of documents

(6) In this section, “premises” ans any building or part of any building used for any purpose.

(7) A district council may impose and collect such rates and taxes as may be authorised by the President.

[Amended 48/91]

111 Establishment of village council fund

All money received by a village council under this Act shall be paid into the village council fund and subject to section 112 all liabilities to be discharged by the village council shall be discharged out of that fund.

The village council fund shall be managed by the Secretary-Treasurer under the control of the village council and all money received in the fund shall be deposited in a bank or with the district council concerned.

A village council may establish a reserve fund with money from the village council fund which shall be operated in such manner as may be prescribed.

112 Estimates of village council

A village council shall in February every year draw up an estimate of the income and expenditure of the council for the next financial year.

The estimate shall be signed by the Secretary-Treasurer and countersigned by the Treasurer and the chief executive of the district council.

(a) Two attested copies of the estimate together with a statement of estimated assets and liabilities shall on or before 7 March next ensuing be sent to the district council in which the village is included for consideration.

(b) The district council shall after consideration forward one of the copies to the Minister with their comments.

The Minister may disallow the whole or any part of the estimate.
(a) The expenditure of a village council during any financial year shall not exceed the amount laid down in the estimate approved by the Minister.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the council may amend the approved estimate in any year, subject to the approval of the Minister, after reference to the district council for their comments.

113 Privilege in regard to rates and taxes

(1) Rates and taxes levied by a local authority under this Act shall be privileged.

(2) (a) The privilege shall rank immediately after the privileges enumerated in article 2148 of the Code Napoléon and shall operate independently of inscription on any immovable or movable property belonging to the ratepayer or taxpayer, as the case may be, wherever such property may be found.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights granted to an urban authority by the Attachment (Rates and Taxes) Act and the Courts (Civil Procedure) Act.

(3) (a) No action shall be brought in respect of a claim for general rate or tenant’s tax unless it is brought within 5 years, from the date on which the rate or tax, as the case may be, became due.

(b) Where there has been a failure on the part of an owner, tenant or occupier to give the notice required under section 95, the prescriptive periods under this section shall begin to run from the date on which it first came to the knowledge of the local authority that the tax was due.

114 Recovery by summary process

All rates, taxes, fees and other charges of any kind due to a local authority under this Act, the recovery of which is not specially provided for under this Act, shall be recoverable by summary judicial process in the manner provided by the Recovery of State Debts Act, and where any act is required to be done or duty to be performed by the Accountant-General under that Act, that act or duty may be performed by the treasurer of the authority.

[Amended 48/91]

115 Application of sections

Sections 116 to 125 shall apply to local authorities other than village councils.

116 Purposes for which money may be borrowed

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a local authority may, with the consent of the Minister, borrow such sums as may be required –

(a) for acquiring any land which the local authority may require;

(b) for erecting any building which the local authority has power to erect;

(c) for the execution of any permanent work, the provision of any plant or the doing of any other thing which the local authority has power to execute, provide or do, where, in the opinion of the Minister, the cost of carrying out that purpose ought to be spread over a term of years.

(2) In no case, without the consent of the Minister, shall –

(a) the total debt of the local authority exceed the amount of revenue of 6 years immediately preceding the year of any loan;

(b) loan charges, inclusive of principal and interest, exceed 20 per cent of the total revenue of the local authority for the preceding year.

117 Period of repayment of money borrowed

Every sum borrowed shall be repaid within such period as the local authority, with the consent of the Minister, may determine.

118 Modes of borrowing

Where a local authority is authorised to borrow money, it may, subject to this Part, raise the money –

(a) on the security of the revenues or other property of the authority, movable or immovable, or of any part thereof by mortgage or otherwise; or

(b) with the consent of the Minister, by way of debentures or bonds issued under this Part.

119 Return to Minister

(1) The chief executive shall, within one month after being requested so to do by the Minister, transmit to the Minister a return showing the provision made for the repayment of money borrowed by the authority.

(2) The return shall show such particulars, shall be made up to such date, and shall be in such form, as the Minister may require, shall be certified by the treasurer or other person whose duty it is to keep the accounts of the authority, and shall, if so required by the Minister,
120 Powers of Minister in relation to return

(1) Where it appears to the Minister from any return made under section 119 or otherwise that a local authority –

(a) has failed to appropriate to the discharge of any loan any sum required to be so appropriated;
(b) has failed to pay any instalment or annual payment required to be paid;
(c) has failed to set apart any sum required for a sinking fund; or
(d) has applied any portion of a sinking fund to a purpose other than that authorised, the Minister may, by order, direct that such sum as is specified in the order, not exceeding the amount in respect of which default has been made, shall be paid or applied in the manner and by the date set out in the order, and the local authority shall notify the Minister as soon as the order has been complied with.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) may be enforced, at the instance of the Minister, by mandamus.

(3) Where a return required to be made under this section is not made, the person in default shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding 5,000 rupees and notwithstanding the recovery of any such fine the making of the return may be enforced, at the instance of the Minister, by mandamus.

121 Balance of unutilised money

The balance of any money borrowed by a local authority and not required for the purposes for which the money was borrowed may, with the consent of the Minister and subject to any conditions which he may impose, be applied to any other purpose for which capital money may be applied.

122 Register of mortgages

(1) The chief executive of a local authority shall keep at the office of the authority a register of mortgages created under this Act.

(2) Within 14 days after the date of mortgage, the chief executive of the authority shall cause an entry to be made in the register of the number and date of the mortgage, of the names and descriptions of the parties to it, and of the amount borrowed, as stated in the deed, and of such further information as the authority may require.

(3) On production to the chief executive of the authority of the deed of mortgage, and –

(a) in the case of a transfer of a mortgage, of a duly executed deed of transfer;
(b) in the case of a transmission of a mortgage by the death of a person solely entitled to it or of the survivor of persons jointly entitled to it, of satisfactory evidence establishing who are the heirs or parties entitled to apprehend the estate and succession of the deceased;
(c) in the case of a transmission of a mortgage otherwise than as specified in paragraphs (a) and (b), of satisfactory evidence of the transmission, and on payment of any sum, as the local authority may determine, the chief executive shall cause an entry to be made in the register of the date of the transfer or transmission, and of the name and description of the person becoming entitled to the mortgage.

(4) Any change of name or address on the part of a person entitled to a mortgage shall forthwith be notified to the chief executive of the local authority who, on being satisfied of the change shall alter the register accordingly.

(5) The register shall be open during office hours to inspection without payment by a duly registered local government elector or any interested party.

(6) Where any person –

(a) having the custody of the register refuses inspection of the register to any person; or
(b) being required under this section to make any entry in the register, refuses or wilfully neglects so to do, he shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding, in the case of an offence under paragraph (a) 5,000 rupees or, in the case of an offence under paragraph (b) 10,000 rupees.

123 Debenture regulations
For the purpose of any borrowing by a local authority by means of an issue of debentures or bonds under this Part, debentures or bonds may be created, issued, transferred, dealt with, and redeemed in such manner as may be prescribed.

Without prejudice to the generality of the above power the regulations made under this section may provide for the discharge of any loan so raised, for the payment of interest on money secured by debentures or bonds, and for the application of the enactments relating to stamp duties.

124 Repayment of money borrowed on mortgage

(1) Every sum borrowed by a local authority by way of mortgage shall be paid off either by equal yearly or half yearly instalments of principal, or of principal and interest combined, or by means of a sinking fund, or partly by one of those methods and partly by another or others of them.

(2) Unless otherwise directed by the Minister, the payment of the first instalment or the first payment, to the sinking fund shall be made within 12 months or, where the money is repayable by half-yearly instalments, within 6 months from the date of borrowing.

125 Temporary loans and overdrafts

(1) A local authority may, with the prior consent in writing of the Minister, borrow by way of temporary loan or overdraft from a bank or otherwise, any sums not exceeding in total 2 million rupees which it may temporarily require –
(a) for the purpose of defraying expenses pending the receipt of revenues receivable by it in respect of the period of account in which these expenses are chargeable and taken into account in the estimates made by the authority for that period;
(b) for the purpose of defraying, pending the raising of loan which the authority has been authorised to raise, expenses intended to be defrayed by means of the loan.

(2) Where money is borrowed under subsection (1) (b) and subsequently the loan is raised, then, for the purposes of this Part regulating the repayment of that loan, the loan shall, to the extent of the sum borrowed be deemed to have been raised at the time when the borrowing took place.

126 Loans to employees

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, a local authority other than a village council may make a loan to any of its employees for the purchase of a bicycle or a motor vehicle to be used by the employee in the performance of his duties.

(2) A loan under subsection (1) –
(a) shall not exceed such sum as the Minister may determine;
(b) shall be on such terms and conditions as the local authority may, with the approval of the Minister, determine;
(c) shall be repaid, with interest, within such period as the Minister may determine.

(3) A local authority shall not make a loan to an employee where any loan previously made to the employee has not been repaid.

127 Keeping of accounts

(1) Every local authority shall keep books in a form to be approved by the Minister in which shall be entered true and regular accounts of all money received and paid on account of the authority and of the several purposes for which money may have been received or paid.

(2) Those books shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of the Director of Audit.

128 Accounts to be made and audited yearly

(1) All accounts of a local authority shall be subject to audit by the Director of Audit and shall be made up yearly to the end of the financial year or to such other date, as the Minister may either generally or in any special case direct, and shall be audited as soon as may be thereafter.

(2) The authority shall pay in respect of the audit of accounts carried out by the Director of Audit such fees as the Minister may after consultation with the authority determine.

129 Accounts of local authorities

(1) The accounts of a local authority shall be made up yearly to the end of the financial year or to such other date as the Minister may either generally or in any special case direct and shall be submitted to the Director of Audit within 4 months of the end of the financial year, or of such other date, as the case may be.
Where the authority fails to comply with this section with respect to a statement of accounts, through the negligence or misconduct of the officer of the authority whose duty it is to keep the accounts which ought to be comprised in the statement of accounts, the officer shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable, to a fine not exceeding Rs 5,000, and notwithstanding the recovery of any such fine, compliance with this section may be enforced, at the instance of the Minister, by mandamus.

130 Deposit of accounts

(1) A copy of every account which is subject to audit by the Director of Audit, duly made up and balanced, and all rate books, accounts books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers and receipts, relating to the accounts, shall be deposited in the appropriate office of the authority, and shall for 7 clear days before they are produced and submitted to the Director of Audit be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of all persons interested, and any such person may make copies of, or extracts from, the deposited documents, without payment.

(2) Where any officer of a local authority duly appointed in that behalf neglects to make up the accounts and books specified in subsection (1), or, except with the consent of, or in accordance with directions given by, the Director of Audit, alters, or allows to be altered, the accounts and books when so made up and deposited, or having the custody of such accounts and books refuses to allow inspection of them, he shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs 5,000.

(3) Before each audit a local authority, on receiving from the Director of Audit the requisite appointment, shall, by advertisement in 2 or more daily local newspapers, give at least 14 days’ notice of the deposit of accounts required by this section and the production of the newspaper containing the notice shall be sufficient proof of the notice in any legal proceedings.

131 Production of documents

(1) The Director of Audit may, by writing under his hand, require the production before him of all council minutes, books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, receipts and other documents which he thinks necessary for the purpose of the audit, and may require any person holding or accountable for, any such document to appear before him at the audit or any adjournment of it, and may require any such person to make and sign a declaration as to the correctness of the document.

(2) Any person who neglects or refuses to comply with any such requirement, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs 5,000.

132 Right of objection

A local government elector for the area or any person qualified to be an auditor under section 102A of the Companies Act 1984 who has been appointed in writing by the elector may submit to the Director of Audit an objection to the accounts.

133 Report on accounts

(1) (a) At the conclusion of the audit the Director of Audit shall report on the accounts audited and examined and shall certify the correctness of the statement of accounts referred to in section 129 subject to any qualification he may include in his report.

(b) The report shall state whether the instructions of the Minister in regard to the statement have been duly complied with.

(2) (a) The Director of Audit shall send the certified statement of accounts together with his report to the local authority and a copy of the statement and of the report to the Minister.

(b) The authority shall take the report into consideration at its next ordinary meeting or as soon as practicable thereafter.

(3) The Director of Audit shall include in his report reference to –

(a) any item of account which, in his opinion, is contrary to law;

(b) any loss or deficiency which, in his opinion, is due to the negligence or misconduct of any person;

(c) any sum which, in his opinion, ought to have been brought to account but which, due to wilful default or negligence, has not been brought into account;

(d) any order signed or payment made contrary to section 103.

134 Publication of audited accounts

The balance sheet and revenue and expenditure account as finally certified and the Director of Audit’s report referred to in section 133 (1) shall be published by the local authority in the Gazette within 14 days after their receipt by the authority.

135 Powers of Minister

The Minister may –
(a) direct a local authority to provide him, within such time as he may specify, with such additional information as he may require in respect of any item referred to in section 133 (3).

(b) direct that the whole or part of any amount referred to in section 133 (3) be refunded or paid to the authority by the person or persons responsible.

136 Recovery of sums certified to be due

Any sum payable under section 135 (b) shall be recoverable in the manner provided by the Recovery of State Debts Act and where any act is required to be done or duty to be performed by the Accountant-General for the recovery of any debt under that Act, the act may be done or duty performed by such officer as the Minister may authorise in writing.

[Amended 48/91]

137 Inspection of books, accounts and vouchers

(1) Any officer duly authorised in writing by the Minister may inspect the books, accounts, vouchers, deeds, contracts, receipts, and all other documents of a local authority.

(2) Every local authority which may be so required by such officer shall within the time fixed by him, give in writing all such information as may be demanded from it by the officer for the purpose of carrying out his inspection.

(3) For the purpose of obtaining further information in respect of the affairs of any local authority, the officer may give notice to the local authority or to any of its officers requiring the local authority or any of its officers within the time limited by the notice, which time shall not be less than 14 days from the date of the service of the notice, to allow him to inspect any of the documents specified at subsection (1).

THIRD SCHEDULE

(Oath of Municipal Councillor)

(section 10)

“I, A B, having been elected (or appointed, as the case may be) a municipal councillor do hereby swear (or solemnly affirm, as the case may be) that I take that office upon myself, and will duly and faithfully fulfil its duties according to the best of my judgment and ability”.

FOURTH SCHEDULE

(section 41)

Meetings and proceedings of local authorities

PART I – URBAN AUTHORITIES

1  In this Part, “council” means a municipal council.

2  (1) In addition to the meeting specified in sections 11 and 12 of this Act, the council shall hold at least 4 quarterly meetings every year for the transaction of general business.

   (2) Meetings of the council shall be held in the council chamber unless otherwise directed by the council.
3  (1) (a) The mayor of the council may call a meeting for the council whenever he thinks it necessary or after a requisition for that purpose, signed by 5 councillors and specifying the reasons of the meeting, has been presented to him.
(b) Where the mayor refuses to call a meeting after the presentation of the requisition to him, or where without refusing, the mayor does not call a meeting within 7 days after the presentation, any 5 councillors, on that refusal or on the expiration of 7 days, as the case may be, may forthwith call a meeting of the council.

(2) Every meeting shall be convened by notice stating the business to be transacted at the meeting and signed by the chief executive.

(3) (a) The notice of the meeting shall be left at or sent by registered post to the usual place of residence or business of every councillor and a copy affixed in a conspicuous place at the Town Hall at least 2 days before the meeting.
(b) Want of service of the notice on any member of the council shall not affect the validity of a meeting.

(4) (a) Except in the case of business required by this Act to be transacted at any meeting of the council, and subject to subparagraph (b), no business shall be transacted at a meeting of the council other than that specified in the notice relating to it.
(b) (i) Any councillor may, before the commencement of public business, give notice of his intention to move at the adjournment of the council a matter of urgent public importance and state the matter briefly.
(ii) The chairman of the meeting shall not allow the motion to be discussed unless he is satisfied that the matter is urgent.
(iii) The chairman of the meeting may, where he is satisfied that priority should be given to the motion, allow it to be discussed before the business of the day is actually transacted.

4 Subject to sections 11 and 12 of this Act –
(a) at a meeting of a council the mayor of the council, if present, shall preside;
(b) where if the mayor of the council is absent from a meeting of the council, the deputy mayor of the council, if present, shall preside;
(c) where both the mayor and deputy-mayor of the council are absent from a meeting of the council, the member whose name is drawn by lot by the chief executive shall preside.

5 (1) All acts of the council and all questions coming or arising before the council shall be done and decided by a majority of the members of the council present and voting thereon at a meeting of the council.
(2) In the case of an equality of votes the person presiding at the meeting shall have a second or a casting vote.

6 The proceedings and debates of the council or of any of its committees shall be conducted in English or in French, according to the council’s wishes, but any member may address the council or any of its committees in English or in French.

7 The names of the members present at a meeting of the council shall be recorded.

8 (1) Minutes of the proceedings of a meeting of the council or of any of its committees shall be drawn up in English or French and entered in a book for that purpose by the chief executive or in his absence by any officer appointed for that purpose by the council, and a copy shall be circulated to the members of the council.
(2) At the next meeting, the person presiding shall inquire of the members present whether they approve the minutes of proceedings of the previous meeting and where no objection is raised, they shall be deemed to have been approved without its being necessary to have them read.
(3) After the procedure laid down in subparagraph (2) has been followed, the minutes shall be signed by the person presiding, and any minute purporting to be so signed shall be received in evidence without further proof.
(4) Until the contrary is proved a meeting of the council or of any of its committees in respect of the proceedings of which a minute has been so made and signed shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held and all the members present at the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly qualified, and where the proceedings are proceedings of a committee, the committee shall be deemed to have been duly constituted and to have had power to deal with the matters referred to in the minute.

9 (1) No resolution expressly or impliedly repealing or altering a decision taken by the council within the year preceding that resolution shall be proposed at any meeting held within that year unless notice is given to the chief executive 10 days and by the chief executive 7 days, at least before the meeting, and no such resolution shall have effect unless it is agreed by two-thirds of the members present.

(2) After a resolution expressly or impliedly repealing or altering a decision of the council has been proposed and rejected, no councillor may propose the same resolution again or propose a new resolution expressly or impliedly repealing or altering the decision, unless 6 months have elapsed from the date of the decision or his proposal has the written support of half the number of councillors (including himself) then in Mauritius.

(3) Where the resolution cannot be put to the vote for want of a quorum at 2 following meetings, no councillor may propose the same resolution unless 6 months have elapsed, and where the decision which it is sought to repeal or alter was for doing an act forthwith or within a specified time, such decision may be carried out immediately after the second of the meetings, if no time was specified, or after the expiration of the specified time.

10 (1) All meetings of the council shall be held in public.

(2) Any person may appear at any quarterly meeting and prefer any complaint concerning any matter connected with the business of the council which he may wish to make.

11 Subject to this Act, the council shall make standing orders for the regulation of its proceedings and business, and may vary or revoke any such orders.

12 (1) The council shall in every year, at its first meeting, appoint such committees as are required to be appointed under paragraph 13 or under any other enactment, and at any time appoint such other committees as are necessary to carry out its functions.

(2) The mayor shall be a member of all the committees of the council.

(3) The chairman of every standing committee shall be a member of the Finance Committee.

13 (1) There shall be set up in respect of every council the following standing committees –
   (a) Finance Committee;
   (b) Public Health Committee;
   (c) Works Committee;
   (d) Welfare Committee;
   (e) Committee of the Whole Council.

(2) Except in the case of the Committee of the Whole Council, the membership of any standing committee shall not exceed 12.
